REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claims 1-3 and 5-11 have been indicated for allowance because the prior art fails to teach the entire combination of a printing device connected to a network including the inputting component comprising a key pad on the printing device, a determination component which determines whether the access requirement information is predetermined information and an information changing component which changes the predetermined information

Claims 17-20 have been indicated for allowance because the prior art fails to teach the entire combination of a method of sending notification of access requirement information or a recording method for recording access requirement information for a printing device connected to a network, the method comprising the steps of manually inputting into a key pad on the printing device access requirements to setting information set in the printing device, determining whether the access requirement information is predetermined information and changing the predetermined information.

2. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
